Verse 1:
you can't re-pel a moose in love by blow-ing through a tu-ba es-pecial-ly when you're vis-it-ing the is-land of A-ru-ba car-ib moose are not as rare as one might first have thought tempt-ed to bring your tu-ba there I'm rec-o-mend-ding not your car-i-be-an moose and your car-i-be-an bear your car-i-be-an big-foot are al-so fair-ly rare that's not to say they can't be found in re-mote is-land spots like-ly drink-ing fan-cy cock-tails and smo-king pri-mo pot smo-king pri-mo pot but ware!

tra-vel to the is-land there are thing you should not bring there your sax-o-phone? you bet! make that car-i-be-an swing there! your san-dals and your snork-le 'course! your sun block and your phone but do your-self a fav or mate and leave your tu-ba home be-ware be-ware the car-i-be-an moose he's look-ing for a par-amour and wild from jun-gle juice if you but make the slight est sound that makes him think you're game well that's on you my friend and I re-fuse to take the blame re-fuse to take the blame be

be-ware be-ware be-ware!
