About

Musician Paul Elwood, based in central New Jersey, provides tasteful musical entertainment for your residents and guests. Your seniors will certainly enjoy hearing and singing along to the music of their younger days! Paul's repertoire includes standards from the Great American Songbook from the 40s on, along with an eclectic mix of classic and current popular, blues and rock tunes.

"I love to interact with the residents and I especially enjoy when they sing along. My goal is to entertain and engage your seniors- and have fun too!"

From the Audience

"You're the best entertainment we have had in a long time."

– group of residents in assisted living, Allentown, PA

"Wow, you are awesome! Everyone had a great time singing along."

– Senior Services PR Liaison

"Great choice of songs – brings back wonderful memories"

– couple at Independent Living, Whiting, NJ

"You have a great voice." "Your guitar playing reminds me of Ry Cooder"

– gentleman at Somerset Senior Center

About Paul

I'm an avid guitar player and instructor who recently moved to the Voorhees area. I play electric and classical guitar and I sing as well. I'm fond of creating my own finger-style guitar pieces, several of which I perform publicly. Influenced primarily by my long-time teacher and friend, NJ guitarist John LaGreca. Favorite guitar player? The great Joe Pass. I attended Berklee School of Music's online program for guitar mastery, studying under Boston-based guitarist David Newsam.

I also perform regularly as a part of a duo and as the vocalist/guitarist for a jazz trio.
